

Client Remote Support

For clients of AlphaScan that need technical support, use the contact information below. Your call will be handled by your local AlphaScan office during normal business hours of 8 am to 5 pm. If they are not available or if you are calling after business hours, an AlphaScan representative will contact a support team member to attend to your ticket.

AlphaScan's normal business hours are 8 am to 6 pm, Monday through Friday. An AlphaScan representative will be available to answer your call away from the office.

For telephone support, please call (023) 8025 8003.
